

FRXE TRADING

Privacy Policy

SECTION A – INTRODUCTION

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Protecting your privacy and keeping your personal information confidential is of utmost importance to us. This Privacy Policy (“Policy”) sets out how we collect and manage your personal and sensitive information in the safest and most secure manner.

1.2. In this Policy, we use the terms “we” “us” “our” or “FRXE Trading Limited” to refer to FRXE Trading Limited and its related companies.

1.3. Personal information includes any information or opinion about you that is capable (or reasonably capable) of identifying you, whether the information or opinion is true or not, and regardless of whether the information is recorded in a material form.

1.4. Sensitive information includes characteristics such as your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions or membership of political associations, religious or philosophical beliefs, membership of a professional or trade association or trade union, sexual orientation or criminal record. Your health, genetic and biometric information and biometric templates are also included under sensitive information. Sensitive information may also include personal information for the purposes of the Privacy Act.

1.5. We collect personal and/or sensitive information to provide you with the products and services that you ask for, as well as information about products and services offered by us or third parties.

1.6. We may use your personal and/or sensitive information to administer our products and services, for prudential and risk management purposes and, unless you tell us otherwise, to provide you with related marketing information. We also use the information we hold to help detect and prevent illegal activity. We cooperate with police and other enforcement bodies as required by law.

1.7. We disclose relevant personal information to external organizations that help us provide services. These organizations are bound by confidentiality arrangements. They may include over- seas organizations.

SECTION B – COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

2. WHY WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

2.1. We only collect personal information when it is reasonably necessary for us in order to engage in business with you.

2.2. We use your personal information to:

2.2.1. verify your identity;

2.2.2. provide you with the products and services that you have asked for;

2.2.3. help us monitor, evaluate and develop our products and services;

2.2.4. enable secure access to our members area;

2.2.5. respond to any feedback, queries or complaints;

2.2.6. provide you with technical support;

2.2.7. comply with our legal obligations under the applicable laws; and

2.2.8. take measures to detect and prevent fraud, crime or other activity which may cause harm to our business or our products and services.

3. INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT

3.1. The personal information we collect about you generally includes the following:

3.1.1. Name;

3.1.2. date of birth;

3.1.3. postal or email address; or

3.1.4. phone numbers, including home, mobile and work;

3.1.5. fax number;

3.1.6. information relating to an individual's source of wealth;

3.1.7. Occupation;

3.1.8. credit card details;

3.1.9. bank account details, including institution name, branch, account name, bank identifier, and account number or IBAN;

3.1.10. information relating to your trading experience;

3.3.5. client's agents;

3.3.6. beneficial owners of the client; and

3.3.7. persons dealing with us on a "one-off" basis.

3.4. We may take steps to verify the information we collect. For example, the birth certificate you have provided as identification may be verified with records held by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages to protect against impersonation, or we may verify with an employer that employment and remuneration information provided in a credit application is accurate.

4. HOW WE COLLECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

4.1. We may either collect personal information about you directly from you or from sources other than you when permitted under the AML/CTF Act. "Sources other than you" may include your agents, family members, friends, related entities, affiliates or divisions.

4.2. We may also collect information from you electronically, for instance, when you visit our web- site.

5. INCOMPLETE OR INACCURATE INFORMATION

5.1. If you provide us with incomplete or inaccurate information, we may not be able to provide you with the products or services that you ask for.

6. CONSENT

6.1. In most cases, we will obtain your consent to use and disclose your personal information for our intended purposes either before or at the time that we collect it.

6.2. If you do not give us your consent or withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide you with the products or services you ask for.

7. WITHDRAWING CONSENT

7.1. You can withdraw your consent at any time. To withdraw your consent, please email at finance@frxe.com at the first instance.

8. SENSITIVE INFORMATION

8.1. We will only collect sensitive information about you if we have your consent, or if we are required or authorized by law to do so.

SECTION C – INTEGRITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

9. QUALITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

9.1. We ensure that the personal information we collect and handle are accurate, up to date, complete and relevant.

9.2. Please contact us if any of the details you have provided to us change or if you believe that the information we have about you is not accurate or up to date.

9.3. We may also take steps to update the personal information we hold, for example, an address, by collecting personal information from publicly available sources such as telephone directories or electoral rolls.

10. SECURITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

10.1. We are committed to protecting the personal information we hold about you from misuse, unauthorized access and disclosure.

10.2. We have implemented a range of practices and policies to provide a robust security environment. We ensure the on-going adequacy of these measures by regularly reviewing them.

10.3. Our security measures include:

10.3.1. Educating our employees about their obligations when they collect and handle personal information;

10.3.2. Requiring our employees to use passwords when accessing our systems;

10.3.3. Encrypting data sent from your computer to our systems during internet transactions and client access codes transmitted across networks;

10.3.4. Employing firewalls, intrusion detection systems and virus scanning tools to protect against unauthorized persons and viruses from entering our systems;

- 10.3.5. Using dedicated secure networks or encryption when we transmit electronic data for purposes of outsourcing; and
- 10.3.6. Practicing a clean desk policy for all premises and providing secure storage for physical records.

10.4. Where we identify that we no longer need certain personal information, we ensure that it is effectively and securely destroyed. For example, we may shred paper records or use other means such as degaussing (de-magnetism of a device) and deletion in the case of electronic equipment and records.

SECTION D – USE OR DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

11. WHO WE DISCLOSE PERSONAL INFORMATION TO

11.1. We may share your information with our related entities and third parties that we outsource functions to or partner with, in certain limited situations where it is necessary for us to provide our products and services or perform associated business activities.

11.2. These entities and third parties include:

11.2.1. Brokers and agents who refer your business to us;

11.2.2. Our third-party business partners or joint initiative providers;

11.2.3. Auditors we appoint to ensure the integrity of our operations;

11.2.4. Any person acting on your behalf, including your financial adviser, solicitor, settlement agent, accountant, executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or attorney;

11.2.5. Your employment referee (to confirm details about you);

11.2.6. If required or authorized to do so, regulatory bodies and government agencies;

11.2.7. Credit reporting agencies;

11.2.8. Other financial institutions and organizations that you seek credit from them (at their request, so that they may assess whether to offer you credit); and 11.2.9. Other organizations who assist us to provide products and services by performing functions such as client contact, banking, payments, data processing, debt recovery, marketing and advertising, data analysis, business intelligence, website and technology services. They may also provide products and services that integrate with or complement our products and services.

11.2.10. We take our obligations to protect your information extremely seriously and make every effort to deal only with parties who share and demonstrate the same attitude. Each of the third parties that we contract with is carefully selected and is only authorized to use your personal information in a secure way that is necessary for them to perform their services to us.

12. DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY LAW

12.1. We will also reserve the rights to disclose your personal information if we are required by law or permitted to do so under the Privacy Act.

SECTION E – DIRECT MARKETING

13. DIRECT MARKETING

13.1. Unless you have asked us not to, we may use your personal information to let you know about new or improved products and services and special offers that may be of interest to you.

13.2. If you do not want us to use your personal information for marketing purposes, please:

13.2.1. Write to us at support@frxe.com.

SECTION F – COOKIES

14. WHAT IS A COOKIE

14.1. A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. If your computer settings allow cookies, then the file is added, and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets the site owner know when you visit a site.

15. WHY WE USE COOKIES

15.1. Cookies help us provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor the pages that you find useful and tailor our website to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

15.2. We may collect information about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration. This is statistical data about your browsing actions and patterns and does not identify you or anyone else as an individual.

15.3. We may disclose the data we collect through cookies to our related companies.

16. HOW TO BLOCK COOKIES

16.1. Most web browsers allow you to adjust settings to erase cookies, disallow cookies, or receive a warning before a cookie is set. Please note that some parts of our websites may not function fully if you disallow cookies.

17. ACCESS

17.1. If you have provided us with personal information, you have the right to request to access or correct it.

17.2. Requests for access to or correct limited amounts of personal information, such as checking to see what address or telephone number we have recorded, can generally be handled over the phone.

17.3. We will respond to your request as soon as we are able to. In some cases, we may ask you to pay an administrative fee to cover costs associated with your request. We will confirm the cost with you and confirm that you want to proceed before auctioning your request.

17.4. We will endeavour to comply with your request within 30 days of hearing from you. To help us respond, please include as much detail as possible about the information that you want to access or correct and, if relevant, how you would like to access the information.

17.5. We will always confirm your identity before providing you with access to your personal information.

18. EXCEPTIONS AND REFUSAL TO GIVE ACCESS OR CORRECTION

18.1. In some circumstances we might have to deny your request for access or correction or limit the access we provide. In either of these situations, we will let you know the reasons for our decision in writing. If you disagree with our decision, you can make a complaint following the process set out in Section J of this Policy.

Client Agreement

SECTION A – RISK DISCLOSURE

Activity on the FOREX international currency market is inevitably related to a large number of risks. The Client acknowledges that they are warned about the losses that they may incur from engaging in such activities. This Risk Disclosure Notice describes the most common risks, but due to the nature of the activities undertaken at the FOREX international currency market, other risks may arise that are not foreseen by this Notice.

1. LEVERAGE RISK/EFFECT

When making transactions in terms of marginal trading, a relatively minor deviation of the rate can bring either considerable profit or losses. When the market moves against Client, he can lose all the deposited funds. The Client shall be fully liable for the allocation of his/her financial resources, the relevant trading strategy, and shall take into account all leverage-related risks.

2. TECHNICAL RISK

Client accepts the risks of financial losses incurred because of failures of information, communication, electronic and other systems. Client accepts the risks of financial losses, which can happen because of malfunction of hardware and software facilities and poor communication at Client's side. Client bears responsibility for his financial losses incurred because of ignorance of the instructions presented in the Client's Terminal Instruction Manual.

3. COMMUNICATION RISK

Client accepts the risks associated with unauthorized access to the information he sent (by electronic mail or using instant message service) in case it was sent unencrypted. Client accepts the risks of financial losses incurred in result of delay or non-receipt by Client a message from the Company. Client bears sole responsibility for safety of confidential information received from the Company and accepts the risks of financial losses incurred in result of unauthorized access of the third parties to the trading account.

4. FORCE MAJEURE

The Company holds no responsibility for any activity of the third parties, which may influence the cooperation between the Company and the Client.

Client accepts the risks of financial losses incurred in force majeure circumstances: hostility, terrorist acts, acts of God, trading halts at financial markets, sharp decrease of liquidity caused by financial market instability, currency interventions, legislation changes, changes of other parties' conditions, etc.

The Company shall bear no responsibility before the Client for any actions, inactions or omissions of a third party and also for any losses incurred by the Client in a result of actions, inactions or omissions of a third party unless such losses directly arises from the Company's wilful default or fraud or gross negligence. The Company shall also bear no responsibility or liability for unfavourable consequences for the Client due to the insolvency/bankruptcy of a third party.

5.3 In case a claim cannot be settled in compliance with this Agreement, the Company has the right to make a decision upon the claim in compliance with its business practice.

SECTION C – ORDER EXECUTION POLICY

6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Client has the right to submit orders in a particular instrument only during the time of trading session specified for this instrument. The time of trading session for each instrument is specified in "Contract Specifications" section of the Company's website.

6.2 Client has the right to transmit the following orders: to open position, to close position, to place pending order, to modify or to delete pending order.

6.3 Client's orders to open position, to close position, to place pending order, to modify or to delete pending order should be made through Client's terminal.

6.4 The time of processing the Client's orders is not a fixed parameter as it depends on the market conditions and the speed of order execution on the side of the Company's partners.

6.5 For those types of accounts, spread for which is specified in a comparison table of account types on the Company's website as "floating", spread specified in the contract specifications, is not fixed and depends on the market condition.

6.6 Transactions to buy should be made at Ask price. Transactions to sell should be made at Bid price.

6.7 Long positions should be opened at Ask price and closed at Bid price. Short positions should be opened at Bid price and closed at Ask price.

6.8 Execution mode is market execution of the Client's orders for all types of accounts.

6.9 When opening a position, the Client should deposit a Margin, the value of which depends on leverage available to Client or on the trading instrument, in which this position is opened.

6.10 If there are any locked positions on the Client's trading account, the Client should have enough of a hedged margin which size is set forth on the client terminal in instrument specification.

6.11 During the last hour before the closing of trading session, for instruments that aren't allowed for trading during weekend or holidays, the Company has the right to refuse to execute the Client's orders, if the total resulting volume of all open positions (in the currency of trading account) becomes 100 times higher than the Equity on the Client's account.

6.12 During the last hour prior to the weekend or holidays, the Company has the right to reduce the account leverage to 1:100 for accounts with leverage higher than 1:100. The Client bears full responsibility for having enough Margin at the moment when the leverage is reduced. The account leverage, which was valid before the reduction, will be restored within several hours after the fact of reduction.

6.13 The Company has the right to change the leverage of the trading account in case the open position on this account does not comply with the leverage requirements:

- (a) In case the Equity is equal or less than $200, the admissible leverage is 1:1000;
- (b) In case the Equity is from $201 to $500, the admissible leverage is 1:1000;
- (c) In case the Equity is from $501 to $5,000, the admissible leverage is 1:300;
- (d) In case the Equity is from $5,001 to $10,000, the admissible leverage is 1:300;
- (e) In case the Equity is above $10,000, the admissible leverage is 1:300;
- (f) In case the Equity is above $ 20,000, the admissible leverage is 1:200;
- (g) In case the Equity is above $ 30,000, the admissible leverage is 1:100;

6.14 The Company bears no responsibility for the Client's having enough Margin to maintain his open positions at the moment when the Client's account leverage is changed.

6.15 If the Client has a Swap-Free account, swaps will not be credited/debited. In these cases, the Client is charged a fixed commission for transiting positions over midnight. A complete commission table is available on the Company's website, "Swap-Free Accounts" section.

6.16 In situations when there is a significant reduction of liquidity, the Company has the right to forbid trading for some instrument or several instruments or make the trading allowed in "Close Only" mode.

6.17 Specific leverage restrictions may apply on certain instruments. FRXE Trading may, in its sole discretion, amend the margin requirements, on a case by case basis, on all or any transactions(s) of the Client, by providing the Client, where reasonable, with notice.

7. OPENING/CLOSING POSITIONS

7.1 In an order to open position, Client should specify the name of instrument and the amount of transaction. In order to close the position, Client should specify the order number.

7.2 When an order to open a position is received, the trading account will be checked for available assets Free Margin. In case the initial margin and/or hedged margin for a position to be opened exceeds free margin in trading account, Client will get a denial with comment "No money".

7.3 After receiving a Client's order, the server enqueues it for processing. When an order is enqueued, Client is acknowledged about it by the message "Order is accepted" in the client terminal. When an order is waiting for execution in a queue, Client has the right to cancel it.

7.4 Just when an order leaves a queue for executing, Client is acknowledged by a message from the server "Order is in process". Clients cannot cancel the order in case it has been accepted for execution.

7.5 When processing Client's order in Market Execution, execution of Client's order will be made at the current price at the moment of order execution.

7.6 All Clients' orders are registered in the server's log-file by making appropriate records.

7.7 A Client's order to open a position is considered to be executed and a position is considered to be opened after an appropriate record has been made in the server's log-file.

7.8 A Client's order to close position is considered to be executed, and a position is considered to be closed after an appropriate record has been made in the server's log-file.

7.9 A Client's order to close position will be declined in case at the moment of its receipt the position is under Stop Loss or Take Profit execution. At that, Client receives the message "Off quotes".

8. PENDING ORDERS

8.1 Client has the right to place the following pending orders:

(a) Buy Stop – an order to open a long position at the market price, when the future Ask price reaches the specified value. This type of order is placed higher than the current Ask price;

(b) Sell Stop – an order to open a short position at the market price, when the future Bid price reaches the specified value. This type of order is placed lower than the current Bid price;

(c) Buy Limit – an order to open a long position at the price, which is not worse than the price specified in the order. This type of order is placed lower than the current Ask price;

(d) Sell Limit – an order to open a short position at the price, which is not worse than the price specified in the order. This type of order is placed higher than the current Bid price;

(e) Stop Loss – an order to close position at the market price, when the future price reaches the specified value. This order is intended to minimize losses in case the price of a financial instrument starts moving towards loss. Such an order is always associated with open position or pending order. Bid price is used to check condition of this order for long position, and Ask price – for short positions;

(f) Take Profit is an order to close position at the price not worse than the specified value. This type of order is intended for taking profit when the financial instrument price hits the expected level. When the order is executed, the position is closed. It is always associated with open position or pending order. Bid price is used to check the condition of this order for a long position and Ask price – for short positions.

8.2 Client has the right to attach the orders Stop Loss and/or Take Profit to the orders Buy Stop, Sell Stop, Buy Limit and Sell Limit. After pending order triggering, its Stop Loss and Take Profit orders will be automatically attached to an open position.

8.3 Stop Loss and Take Profit shall be executed only for an open position and shall not be executed for any pending orders.

9. PLACING PENDING ORDERS

9.1 In a direction to place pending order, Client should specify the following:

(a) Compulsory parameters: instrument, volume, order type (Buy Stop, Sell Stop, Buy Limit, Sell Limit), price level;

(b) Optional parameters: Take Profit price level, Stop Loss price level, Expiration time of pending order.

9.2 A pending order will be denied in case of wrong input of compulsory or optional parameters.

9.3 The Company has the right to refuse the Client's request to place a pending order, if the equity on the Client's trading account is less than the margin required for the execution of the order.

9.4 A pending order will be denied in case a price level in the order does not comply with the condition "Limit & Stop Levels".

9.5 Condition "Limit & Stop Levels" assumes that pending orders cannot be placed closer than within a minimal number of points against current price. The values of "Limit & Stop Levels" for each instrument are specified in the Contract Specifications.

9.6 The Client's direction to place an order is assumed to be executed and an order is assumed to be placed after an appropriate record is made in the server's log-file.

10. MODIFICATION AND DELETION OF PENDING ORDERS

10.1 To modify the orders Buy Stop, Sell Stop, Buy Limit and Sell Limit, Client should specify price level, Take Profit value and Stop Loss value.

10.2 To modify Take Profit and/or Stop Loss attached to open position, Client should specify Take Profit value and/or Stop Loss value.

10.3 In case a pending order has been accepted for execution, it cannot be modified or deleted.

10.4 To delete Take Profit and Stop Loss, it is necessary to specify zero price value for these orders.

10.5 A direction to modify or to delete an order is assumed to be executed, and an order is assumed to be modified or deleted after an appropriate record has been made in the server's log-file.

11. EXECUTION OF ORDERS
